“Not only is Christianity something strange to people today, but it cannot even attract by its strangeness, because people are familiar with the distortions and caricatures of it which are constantly being hawked about.”

~ Olivier Clement

“A book of uncommon interest and importance... a new vision of the meaning of Christian doctrine and the scope of Christian prayer and life.”

Our Fall Adult Education Class will begin on Monday, October 30. We will be reading The Roots of Christian Mysticism by Olivier Clément. The very prominent Orthodox scholar Fr. Andrew Louth said of this book: "There are some books so good that all one wants to say is: go out, buy it and read it - it is marvelous!"

This book – and the ensuing discussion – will immerse you into Orthodox spirituality like few books possibly could. There is nothing quite like it!
